TO BE SIGNED BY ALL APPLICANTS

I understand -

- that all those entering a Christian Science House rely entirely on Christian Science for healing, that no material remedies may be used and that no medical attention is provided, nor may any medical examinations be made on the premises;
- that all physical conditions must be stated above and be cared for by the Christian Science nursing staff of the House; and
- that all accommodation offered at the House is temporary, and each admission will be regularly reviewed. If at any time during my stay the management should ask me to withdraw, I will willingly and promptly comply with the request.
- that the Christian Science nursing staff will assist me in making arrangements to seek alternative treatment at a different location should I change my mind.

I have read and understood the Hawthorne Trust Benevolence Policy.

I hereby make my application for admission and agree to the terms as stated herein.
